Maths Week: Can You Help?

We are celebrating Maths Week 9th—14th November. As part of this week, the children will be engaging in lots of fun, real life, cross-curricular activities, problem solving and puzzles. In addition, we'd like to share some short video clips from people who use maths in their job so that our children can see how relevant maths is and hopefully feel inspired by the careers they could get into! Can you help? If you have a job where you use maths and would be happy to film a short video explaining your role and how you use maths within it, please send to:
